Description of services provided ▶

The gaming manager oversees the supervision of all charitable gaming activities. The gaming is run by an outside charitable gaming organization. Services provided by the gaming manager include oversight of staff, volunteers, and the charitable gaming days. Total compensation paid to the gaming manager was in their capacity as an employee of Family Promise of Southern New Hampshire; services related to the events were a very small portion of the total services s/he provided to the organization during the year, so no reasonable basis for the amount of their compensation related to gaming activities can be established.
